

NICON Annual Conference and Exhibition 2017

Transformation in Practice – Delivering Together

---

Time: 08.30 - 17.00 and 8.30 - 14.15

Date: Thursday 18 and Friday 19 May 2017

Venue: La Mon Hotel and Country Club, Belfast

Compère: Mark Carruthers, Broadcaster, Northern Ireland

---

Day One - Thursday 18 May

8.30 - 9.30      Registration, exhibition and networking

9.30 - 9.40      Welcome and introduction

Colm McKenna, Chair, NICON, and South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust

9.40 - 10.00      Key note – Health and Wellbeing 2026 – Delivering Together

- Department of Health, VIP

10.00 - 10.35      Transformation – learning from others

An English Overview - Leading Local Transformation

- Niall Dickson, Chief Executive, NHS Confederation

Public Health, Prudent Healthcare and a whole of government approach

- Dr Tracey Cooper, Chief Executive, Public Health Wales

10.35 - 10.45      Delegate discussion

10.45 - 11.15      Refreshments, exhibition and networking

Launch of the Public Health Agency, Food Standards Agency, Safe Food, Nutrition Standards

11.15 - 11.45      “It is all about outcomes” – Rhetoric or reality?

In this session we will hear from our partners about the emerging impact of Programme for Government and Community Planning, as we all seek to think about an outcomes approach and drive better population health. Are we moving beyond the words?

- Theresa Donaldson, Chief Executive, Lisburn and Castlereagh City Council
- Seamus McAleavey, Chief Executive, Northern Ireland Council for Voluntary Activity

11.45 - 12.35 Delivering transformation together

In this session we set out the key transformation projects across our system and discuss with leaders the priorities and practicalities for Health and Wellbeing 2026 – Delivering Together.

- Martin Dillon, Chief Executive, Belfast Health and Social Care Trust
- Colette Goldrick, Northern Ireland Director, Association of the British Pharmaceutical Industry (APBI)
- Nora Smith, Chief Executive, Co3
- Sharon Gallagher, Director of Transformation, Department of Health Northern Ireland
- Dr Colin Fitzpatrick, Royal College of GPs Northern Ireland

12.35 - 12.45 Delegate discussion

12.45 - 13.45 Lunch and exhibition

- 12.45 Co-production in Action – An audiology case study (Glen 3 & 4)
- 12.45 Patient Involvement Awards – PCC (Glen suite)
- 12.45 Camper Van of Health and Social Care Dreams – What’s your dream for “delivering together”? (Main Door, La Mon)
- 13.15 Launch of Engage website, Health and Social Care Board and Public Health Agency (Riverview suite)

13.45 - 14.45 Transformation showcase – Learning from our peers and partners

- 20 Café Conversations (Main auditorium)
- Parallel sessions***
  1. Transforming Primary Care (Glen 1 and 2)
  2. Quality – An Everyday practice? (Glen suite)

Choose to join one of two parallel sessions or a range of short conversations which showcase how staff, patients and our partners are transforming services and improving care.

14.45 - 15.15 Exhibition and Refreshments

- 15.00 Launch of improving lives, saving money – Royal College of Occupational Health (Riverview)

15.15 - 15.45 Innovation in social care – No time like the present

In this session John Kennedy, a member of the Expert Advisory Panel on Adult Care and Support poses a challenge to the health and social care status quo. There is no time like the present to rethink social care and develop new approaches to meet the needs of a changing society.

- John Kennedy, Expert Advisory Panel on Adult Care and Support

15.45 - 16.30 The patient elevator

The Programme of Government 2016-21 sets out our aspiration to improve patient experience and a key element of Health and Wellbeing 2026 - Delivering Together is to move to a much greater co-production approach. In this session 5 patients will tell their stories and we can explore what we can learn for emerging practice. The session will be introduced by;

- Carmel Harney, Assistant Director, Allied Health Professions, Southern Health and Social Care Trust
- Charlotte McArdle, Chief Nursing Officer, Department of Health
- Catherine Howe, Solutions Director, Capita
- Peter McBride, Chief Executive, Inspire Wellbeing

16.30 - 17.00 Co-produced, compassionate & collective - creating our new leadership strategy

Our vision is that everyone - staff, patients and partners can all have a role in creating great care. In this session Myra Weir and Professor Michael West will give a flavour of our new leadership strategy. As leadership is about actions, not just words, we will invite you to get involved!

- Professor Michael West, Head of Thought Leadership, Kings Fund
- Myra Weir, Director of HR, South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust

17.00 – 17.15 Closing remarks

- Dr Ian Clements, Chairman, Health and Social Care Board

17.15 - 18.15 Fringe Sessions***

- 1 - Engaging with the Health Committee
- 2 - Transforming Audiology Service

18.30 – 22.30 Celebrating transformation welcome reception and dinner

At this celebration dinner we will hear from our award winning colleagues who are leading change and improving care right across Northern Ireland. Belfast comedienne, Nuala McKeever of Hole in the Wall Gang fame, will provide our evening entertainment.

Day Two - Friday 19 May

8.30 - 9.15 Breakfast session***

1. Imprivata fringe
2. Transforming practice through workforce development - Open University

8.30 - 9.30 Coffee and exhibition

9.15 - 9.20

Welcome

- Heather Moorhead, Director, Northern Ireland Confederation for Health and Social Care (NICON)

9.20 - 9.55

Accountable care organisations – How can they improve population health?

- Chris Wood MD, VP/Medical Executive, Intermountain Healthcare and Cerner

9.55 - 10.30

Digital transformation

This session will explore the latest thinking and emerging practice in using technology to radically change the way we think about and deliver care

- Dr Dermot O’Riordan – Chief Clinical Information Officer, West Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust
- Dr Michael Quinn, EHCR Clinical Lead
- Scott Adams, Director of Integrated Health and Social Care, BT Global Services

10.30 – 11.30

Parallel sessions*

1. Digital Transformation - We need you?
2. A Culture of Stewardship - New perspectives on the clinical leadership
3. Brexit - Navigating the uncharted waters
4. Rethinking, Redesigning Care
5. Accountable Care Systems - Getting to grips with the principles

11.30 – 12.00

Exhibition, refreshments and networking

Mobile Health Taster Session - Connected Health Innovation Centre

12.00 - 12.55

The Big Debate - Workforce

The big debate this year will focus on the emerging new workforce strategy. Health and social care is a people business – will everything else be undermined if we do not get this right?

- Tony Stevens, Chief Executive, Northern Health and Social Care Trust
- Danny Mortimer, Chief Executive, NHS Employers
- Janice Smyth, NI Director, RCN
- Michael Moran, Junior Doctor and campaigner
- Alex Kane, Political commentator and ex UUP Director of Communications

12.55 - 13.25

Transformation means transformation

We often talk about transformation, but what do we really mean? With over five decades of thinking beyond convention, Sir Muir Gray will inspire colleagues to challenge themselves to create something beyond their existing practice. Leaving the clichés behind what could transformation mean in your world?

- Sir Muir Gray, Healthcare leader, innovator and author

13.25 - 13.30 Closing Remarks

Colum Conway, Chief Executive, Northern Ireland Social Care Council, Vice Chair NICON

13.30 - 14.15 Lunch, exhibition and networking

Intersystems Fringe Session

14.15 – 15.45 eHealth Roundtable

Given we have a range of visiting experts in Northern Ireland, the eHealth Team will host a further delegate discussion on the opportunities and practicalities of supporting digital transformation in Northern Ireland. This session is now open to all delegates.

Parallel and fringe sessions

Day 1: Parallel sessions - 13:45 - 14:45

1 - Transforming Primary Care

- Dr Dermot O’Riordan
- eHealth colleagues
- Mark Lee

2 - Quality – Our Everyday Practice?

- Dr Anne Kilgallen, Deputy Chief Medical Officer, DHNI

Day 1: Fringe – 17:15 – 18:15

1 - Engaging with the Health Committee

Led by former Health Committee Chair Paula Bradley, MLA and Eilis Haughey, Health Committee Clerk

2 - Transforming Audiology Services

Day 2: Breakfast session – 08:00 – 09:00

1 - Imprivata fringe

2 - Transforming practice through workforce development - Open University

Day 2: Parallel session – 10:30 – 11:30

1 - Digital Transformation– We need you?

In this session eHealth Leaders will explore with visiting experts and delegates how we can support each other to embrace and accelerate digital transformation in Northern Ireland.

2 – Culture of Stewardship – New perspectives on the clinical leadership

In this slightly extended session Professor Keith Gardiner, Chief Executive of Northern Ireland Medical & Dental Training Agency, will explore with Sir Muir Gray and other clinical leaders how clinicians can be supported to take on a greater role in shaping transformation. This session is supported by Achieve Develop Explore Programme for Trainees (ADEPT) Clinical fellows.

3 - Brexit – Navigating the Unchartered Waters

In this session Danny Mortimer, Chief Executive of NHS Employers and Muiris O'Connor, Republic of Ireland Department of Health, will explore with local leaders the potential impact of Brexit and the actions and opportunities which may be available to us.

4 - Rethinking, Redesigning Care

In this session we will hear about the new Primary Percutaneous Coronary Intervention service and the Mid and East Antrim Active Aging Partnership. You will also hear from the British Heart Foundation about how they are rethinking and redesigning care. Are there lessons for us all?

5 - Accountable Care Systems - Getting to grips with the principles

In this session, chaired by Tony Stevens, Chief Executive Northern Health and Social Care Trust, Emma Holden, Assistant Director in the Department of Health, will set out a vision for more local accountable care systems described in the Bengoa report “Systems Not structures”. Learning from work in England and the USA we will consider the principles and how we could embrace these in Northern Ireland.

Please note that programme details are correct at the time of going to print. It may sometimes be necessary for reasons beyond our control to alter the content and timing of the programme and/or speaker information. We therefore reserve the right to make changes where necessary.

